“ Diane and I worked together many years ago at BellSouth. She was so smart and funny! I totally enjoyed her. Over the years, I have frequently thought of her and wish we would have kept in touch. Rest in peace my friend.

“ One thing I loved about my Aunt Diane was that she was a JOY SEEKER. What I loved even more was the fact that she found joy in the everyday ordinary things. She found happiness in silly sneakers, soft blankets, bright colorful hats, comfy shirts with happy prints, her flowers coming into bloom, completing a puzzle, and so many other seemingly little things. When I would visit her she would never fail to mention how delighted she was by the fact that every morning her son Nick would wake up early just to be sure that her heater was on and she had a fresh thermos full of coffee. And when Mike would pass by she'd look at him and then look at me and say, "That man is so good to me." She'd rave about how Mom made her favorite soup or a co-worker or friend shared stories about their families. She appreciated all of those things and consistently told me how LUCKY she was. I was pretty lucky to have a role model like her.

“ My favorite memory of Diane was her sneaking frosting off of birthday cake to give to Zach when he was a baby behind Lori's back because Lori refused to give him sugar. Dino said a little sugar never hurt anyone! --Nancy Khashan

“ Diane, you were a wonderful coworker and friend. Your eyeroll every time someone said b.s. in the office - if it was from the CEO on down was classic and will be missed by me. You worked your butt off and did it by the book. It was an honor to know you and I will add you to my memory book and will think about you often. God bless you girl - Chris M.
