

Diane Hubbard Stevens

August 27, 1942 - September 14, 2021

Diane Stevens passed away peacefully on Tuesday, September 14, 2021. She was born and raised in Austin, Indiana. She graduated from Milligan College in Tennessee where she met her future husband, Rusty Stevens. After getting married they moved to Dekalb county Georgia where Diane worked as an elementary school teacher for 33 years. After retiring she and Rusty moved to Lake Oconee where they became involved at their local Elks Lodge. Diane even served as state president of the Elkettes in 2011. She loved volunteering at Elks Aidmore and helping out wherever she could. She was preceded in death by her parents, George and Virginia Hubbard, and her husband Rusty. She is survived by her sister and brother-in-law Sally & Marty Elmes of Bowling Green, Ky; her sons and daughters-in-law Rusty & Cheryle Stevens of Lawrenceville, Ga and Rick & Stephanie Stevens of New Zealand; grandchildren Renee (Christopher) Wade, Rebekah (Mike) Richards, Russell Stevens, Frank Stevens, Rhys Stevens, and Savannah Stevens; and six great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

“ Diane Hubbard Stevens

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM

“ RIP my dear friend. Heaven is a much better place now.

Sally McKinley - October 02, 2021 at 09:41 AM

“ Stan & Terri Huff lit a candle in memory of Diane Hubbard Stevens

stan & Terri Huff - October 02, 2021 at 09:38 AM

“ Diane might have been short in stature, but she had a large heart and always doing for others. A happy lady, Diane was involved in various community activities. She was the best neighbor and my dear friend of 21 years.
My deepest sympathy to the family on the passing of this amazing lady.
Barb Griffiths

Barb Griffiths - October 02, 2021 at 09:24 AM

LW

“ Lorraine Webb lit a candle in memory of Diane Hubbard Stevens

Lorraine Webb - September 28, 2021 at 08:48 PM

SE

“ RIP My sweet sister ❤️

Sally Elmes - September 22, 2021 at 04:56 PM