“ Your mother, grandmother, sister, sister in Christ and friend died on my birthday. However, I want you to know that neither of your parents will be forgotten by those who worshipped and served with them at the Lewisville congregation.

Loyd & I are giving a belated memorial for your dad to the Preacher Training Camp (Your dad & Loyd served as deacons together at Lewisville.) and a memorial for your mother to the O.W.L.S. Camp. I remember working with her as she would gather information for the newspapers, etc. while I was the office administrator or singing with the JOY Bunch when I was underage, not 60.

My mother died October 4, 2013, so I can understand to an extent what you are going through but also knowing that our heavenly Father and Christian friends will help us as we continue to mourn. However, we do have hope that can sustain us.

In Christian love, Loyd & Janice Wright

“ I can hear Delores saying, "Well HELLO," every time I walked into the church building. What a smile and personality!! She was an intelligent, warm, accepting stimulating person to be around. She was a model Christian and I'm sure God welcomed her with open arms. I will miss her...as I have missed her for a long time at Village Meadows. Please accept our deepest sympathy.

“ Trey and Maribeth,

Just heard of the passing of your Mom and my heart is tender for you. It's been a long time and life has taken many turns, but at times like this, there is a bond that is never broken. Your Mother was a beautiful, gracious woman and I have many fond memories of her. She was powerful yet humble, forceful yet soft-spoken, strong yet pliable - quite the example for young women trying to find their way. Take comfort in knowing she knows The Eternal One and is with Him, waiting for you. Much love, Anita Roberson Blair

“ Dolores was a great neighbor and always made time to chat. She brought up her late husband many times, I could tell she really missed him. She would talk about all the places they lived and how much she missed him. She would always point things he did in life or work and things they did together. I know she is at peace now being reunited with him. We will miss her!

“ John & I extend our deepest sympathy in your loss of your mother & grandmother. Dolores was a huge part of my life as a young adult. She guided us through the beginning raising of a child with handicaps; she was my Arizona "mother" . I truly believe Chris would not be the productive adult he is without her knowledge and training.

She was also a fun part of our bridge group for many years. Our secret was that we really didn't want to play cards, but just get together and chat about our families.

We had a wonderful long conversation last year. Memories were shared, updates on children & grandchildren noted, and future plans made. While I know Dolores loved her children & grandchildren with all her heart, she truly missed Ed and will be happy to join him again.

With love & sympathy

“ I am so sorry to hear of Aunt Delores' passing. She was such a dear lady. I know what you and the family are going through right now. However, we can all find comfort in knowing that she is now with Uncle Ed and other loved ones. The Lord has a home prepared for all of us and we can rejoice in knowing we will all be together again someday. My love and prayers are with you.

“ In every culture, grieving families appreciate receiving comfort. The Creator of life also gives comfort to such mourning ones. The Christian apostle Paul stated in the Bible, that God "who comforts us in all our trials, so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial." (2 Corinthians 1: 3, 4) True, divine help does not eliminate the pain but it can make it easier to bear. The Bible teaches that all those in the memorial tombs will be resurrected. Please read John 5:28, 29 in your Bible for comfort and hope.
