“ JoAnn, Ward, and Sabrina, I am truly sorry for your loss as I cannot imagine what you must be going through. I extend to you my deepest sympathy and condolences for Donald's passing. Although it has been many years, I still have the fondest memories of him, and I can only hope to someday achieve the love, respect, and admiration that he received from each of you and others. Please know that I will be praying for the Lord to wrap his arms around you and comfort you in the way that only He can do during this time of sadness.

“ Dear family,
Our regrets to you in the loss of your husband, father, brother and friend. Don has been so kind and such a gentleman all these years to our family. His servant spirit was evident to all who have had the privilege of knowing him. May God's comfort and peace abide with you all. Buster and Edith Puckett

“ May you find peace and comfort, from God, Jehovah, who comfort those who mourn.-Isaiah 66:13. I hope knowing what Jesus says about all those who have fallen asleep in death, will bring you some solace. He tells us that a small number of those who continued the preaching work that he began when he was on the earth, will join him and his heavenly Father in heaven, as joint heirs in his Kingdom, to rule over the paradise earth.-Revelation 5:9; 14:1; 20:6. But, the greatest joy will be seeing your deceased love ones again, alive and well, when Jesus calls them from the grave and restores them back to life, to live forever on the paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Just imagine have the same joy and happiness, those families had when Jesus restored their love ones back to life, like Lazarus, a twelve year old little girl and the only son of a widow.-John 11:11-44; Luke 7:11-15; 8:49-56. We will one day have that same kind of joy.-Psalms 37:29.
