“ I'm so sorry I didn't know of Donald's Homegoing until after the funeral. I heard it was BEAUTIFUL. How could it be anything but, when in honor of such a wonderful man. Donald's testimony was powerful and inspiring and one that gave hope to many who thought there would be little chance God could use them. The first words he heard on the other side were undoubtedly, "Well done, good and faithful servant." We loved Donald and we love you Carolyn. Keep us in mind if you need ANYthing. Please. It would be an honor to serve you.

“ I praise God for allowing me to enjoy the fruit that Donald produced daily in his life. I have accepted the challenge that Donald, through Christ, has put before me in witnessing a humble example of Christ in one's life through service to others. I am reminded of Philippians 1:3-4 I thank my God every time I remember you. I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. I look forward to the day I will rejoice with Donald in Glory.

“ I only met Donald by chance, as I was the nurse who took care of Mary Grace Wages, and he was always right on time to cut the lawn, she thought very highly of him and his wife. We had a few short conversations, and I feel privileged to have met him at all. Always had a kind word and a smile to share. I pray God's blessings on the time at this sad time, but I am sure as a Christian we will see him again. Thoughts and prayers are with you all. Tammy

“ There is family you have to grit your teeth at and pretend you're smiling when you're around them and then there are those you'd have to go find if weren't lucky enough to be born into their blood. I can't believe my good fortune to have known uncle Donald all my years.

If you're a good person and don't believe God can get ahold of you and change your life when you're a little gray around the temples, all you had to do was look at Donald and see what God can do when you give Him an honest and open invitation to show you what He's got for you. He was a good guy turned great in God's presence.

Let me be the second one to tell you Donald, "Well done"
