“ Donna was a beautiful person inside and out and she will be missed by all. When my Father was in the nursing home she always stopped by just to say Hi and see how he was doing. Donna was always thinking of others...that was Donna! Rest In Peace sweet lady the world was a brighter place with you and your caring nature. God Bless Virginia

“ I met your mom when she worked at Lincare. Donna would always lite up a room with her wonderful smile. Donna was very proud of her family and would help anyone that asked her and those that would not if she knew you needed help. Donna placed everyone before herself. Matt and Dustin your mom loved you guys so much. The little children was her life too. Your mom will be missed my many. Praying that you are giving extra strength and peace during the up coming days and weeks. In Jesus name. Amen
