“ Kenneth,

I was so sorry to hear about your mom's passing. I cherish the many years I had with Nell and Millie. Nell was also such a loyal friend. She loved her family dearly and was so proud of her boys. I know she will be greatly missed. She and I shared many good and bad times, but mostly just lots of laughs together ! At Christmas, I always think of her beautiful tree with her handmade ornaments she would put up every year. She loved telling about each of the ornaments and showing the beautiful tree skirt she made that went with them. I have too many fond times to list....lots of wonderful memories during our years at Lake Springs.

“ Dear Ken and Mark,

My thoughts and prayers are with you both. Your mother was one of the most thoughtful and loving people I have ever known. She left a legacy to all of us with her research and recording of her family's history.

She will be greatly missed.

Love,

Selmah
