“ There are no words to describe how much I miss my Big Granny. When I heard she had died I fell apart and cried for days non stop. I loved her to the moon and back. When I came to Georgia for the summer she was fighting and she was fighting so hard and I am very proud of that. I love you too the moon and back Big Granny never forget that.

“ It has been my honor knowing my Dot Bug! She was always kind and had a smile all the times I spent with her. I loved her feisty spunk and her drive to say it just how it is. It's been a joy and blessing to have you in my life. Forever you've etched a place in my mind, heart and soul. We shall dance one day my Dot Bug!

“ It was an honor to be able to meet her just a couple years ago. She was my husband's great aunt. She was Eula Mae's aunt. I took a wonderful picture of Tom, his sister Peggy and her and would be glad to send a copy if you let me know. Love you Aunt Dorothy and miss you.
