July 12, 2012

Dr. Jack Waddey Holt, of Suwanee, GA, passed away Thursday, July 12, 2012. He was born in Franklin, Tennessee December 22, 1931 to Mary Frances Waddey Holt and Edward Alan Holt. At the age of sixteen, his family relocated to Memphis, TN. Dr. Holt graduated from Memphis University with a Master's Degree and from the University of Tennessee in 1956 after serving in the United States Army in Germany. He taught in the Atlanta, Dekalb and Fulton school district for thirty years. He was preceded in death by his father and mother and his brother Alan. He is survived by his brother, Edward G. Holt (JoAnn), nieces, Fran Wilson (Scott) of Memphis, TN and Kathryn Junod (Tom) of Suwanee, GA; a great niece; three great nephews; and an aunt, Anne Plant of The Woodlands, TX. Dr. Holt is also survived by his many friends whom he considered his extended family. A longtime resident of the Suwanee community, Dr. Holt recently moved to the Noble Village Retirement Community in Suwanee, GA. The family would like to thank the staff of Noble Village for their wonderful care and service given to Jack. The family would also like to thank Cross Roads Hospice and their staff for their immediate response and attention to our beloved brother providing him with an easy passage to his forever home. Per Jack's request, there will be no services, and his body will be cremated. Any memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society or a charity of your choosing in memory of Dr. Jack Waddey Holt.
