“ Nancy and Tracey & families. I just found out today (12/06/12) that Ed had passed away. I felt sad for our community but especially for Nancy and Tracey. Ed was a wonderful friend and American. He truly was a leader in the mold of General Patton who could get the mission accomplished and not give just empty excuses. Ed was a "quiet" man when it came to helping others. He wanted no fame or glory. Ed, wherever you are in this great universe of God's. YOU MADE A DIFFERECE.

“ Nancy, Tracey, John ,

*My love and prayers go out to each of you. Ed was an incredible friend. His love for others and his giving nature will always be in my heart. He was great hunting buddy and I've missed being with him on the dove field or hunting quail. His jokes still make me laugh! Integrity- He personified the word. Friend- he stood for loyalty. Honesty-he always told you the truth and where he stood. Giving- he'd give the shirt off his back. Patriot-no need for words. Wonderful husband, father and grandpa-there's no equal. I will miss you Ed but will laugh again with you in heaven. The world has lost a great man. God must need him in heaven. Nancy - if you need anything, I will be there for you or your family. With Christ's Love,
Bruce*

“ To a Great Friend that I will miss and never forget.
Ed wore many hats that influenced so many friends and families. As a Deacon, Ed wanted to help and serve wherever there was a need. He always enjoyed packaging and delivering toys to children at Christmas time thru the Buford First Toys Ministry. Thank you Lord for allowing me to know Ed Radford. I pray that Nancy, Tracey and Family will be Blessed with comfort and strength from our Lord and Savior.

“ Donald Everett, COL, USA (Ret)
Nancy, Tracy and family,

Ed Radford was an American hero. As an Airborne Ranger in Viet Nam, he received numerous medals for valor including the Purple Heart, Silver Star and the Distinguished Service Cross (The nation's second highest award for bravery). He was a truly a patriot who loved the Army and this country. .

Nancy, Tracy and family, as you all go through following days, weeks and months know that Ed will be fondly remembered and missed by many. Judy and I share your grief, and all of your family will be lifted up in our prayers.

While Ed is in a better place, the world is a lesser place with his passing.

“Great” is an over-used word, but Ed was truly great in every possible sense of that word. I know for me he was a great friend, a great mentor, and a great role model. I know he must have been a great husband and father as well, and Nancy, Tracey and the whole family are in my prayers.
