“ Norma, I didn't know!!!! I am so sorry!! My heart aches for you! My sister-in-law (his Uncle Earl's wife) just told me! I am in a state of shock! I never got to truly know Dustin and that breaks my heart as we were so close in age. Plus he was the spitting image of my brother. I did cherish the phone conversations he and I reconnected after my brother died in 2012.

“ Norma and family,
My heart aches for you and the loss of Dustin. I feel the loss because you all have been a part of my life for more than 20 years. I have 'watched' him grow from a strong little boy into a wonderful, loving, talented young man. I saw the glow in your eyes when you talked about your sons and knew how much they filled your heart. Even though Dustin may be gone from this Earth, he will always remain in your heart and will love you all forever. Hold on tight to that love, remember the joy he brought to your lives, thank God for the blessing of giving him to you, and stay strong in your faith. You all will be in my thoughts and prayers. Let me know if I can do anything to help you at any time.

“ I didn't have the opportunity to meet Dustin personally, but heard about so many happy moments that he and Jordan spent together! The two of them had beautiful plans and goals for the future! We will never know why GOD called Dustin home early, but be sure Dustin left his mark on so many in such a wonderful way. Praying for all his family as well as the Swaney family.

“ I am Jordan's aunt and only had the pleasure of meeting Dustin the evening before he passed, but found him to be very kind and cheerful. I wish I could have gotten to know him better. My deepest condolences to all of the family ??.

“Dustin was my cousin. Unfortunately, I cannot attend the funeral, since I'm currently in the UK. We never really kept in touch throughout the years, but a few months ago he messaged me on Facebook. He started asking me all sorts of questions about ancient religions that he thought I, as a classicist and ancient historian, might know something about. I was impressed to learn that he'd become really fascinated by the study of ancient religions and the philosophical questions they posed. He had been reading apocrypha and a commentary on the Torah. He even expressed an interest in learning biblical Hebrew and Ancient Greek so that he could read the original texts. I emailed him some materials to start learning Ancient Greek. I don't know if he ever got around to it, but I like to imagine he found some time for it in his busy schedule. I thought I'd share that story, because that's an aspect of him that I sympathize with and I don't if many people knew of. Much like me, he detested formal schooling, yet he was an avid learner and inquisitive person, who seemed to like pondering the big questions. He was studious about it as well and I have no doubt he learned a lot in the months since those conversations. RIP.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Please, accept my deep sympathy. But be assured God does not cause death at this time. Ecclesiastics 9:11. Soon our heavenly Father will send Jesus, to set up his kingdom here on Earth. Mathew 9:10 Daniel 2:44. Remember " Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven; This is a government. Soon it will bring, no more tears, sicknesses, death, pain. Revelation 21:3-5 The dead will be brought back to life , here on Earth. Act 24:15; Psalms 37:11,29. I am praying for strength beyond normal, and comfort for you and your loved ones. Look up all scriptures you will see all is true. For more information go to this link: everything is free. <https://bit.ly/2Cma8xE> what happens after death?

“Dustin was my cousin and overcame a lot in his short life. He was well loved and all around good person. My thoughts and prayers are with his mother Norma, his grandparents and all the other family members. God calls people home for a reason and it was Dustin's time to get his angel wings. Heaven is a more special place and some we will see him again. He will be looking down over his family each and everyday. Rest In Peace Dustin and know you were well loved.
