“ I never had the honor of meeting E.J. But count his aunt A.J. as a dear friend. I have also gotten to meet several other family members and hear stories of him. What I know is that he was loved beyond measure and I will be missed. My heart hurts for you all. Love never dies, he will always be in your hearts.

“ Sending condolences and blessings to the Landrau and Bryan families from the Seattle Linfords in this intense time of sudden grief. The loss of EJ's warm and friendly presence is difficult to grasp. We didn't know E J well but during the weekends we all spent together at the Bryan's over these past few years, it was abundantly clear that he adored his fiancée Christie, attentively helping her any way he could. His willingness to kindly express his love for her through his eyes, words and actions can hopefully remain a lasting example for all young men. We will always remember his calm, welcoming smile. God bless you E J. Sending strength to all those you touched who miss you deeply.

I was just really getting to know EJ after working with him at Toyotechs for the past year. His knowledge of baseball, football, and cars made for some very enjoyable conversations and times at work. I am so very sorry this happened to EJ, and for his family left to deal with the aftermath. Just so sad
