“ *I am so sorry for your loss. Please except my deepest condolences. I am hoping that my words may be of some comfort to you and your family. Please take note of the words stated by the faithful man Job at (Job 14:14, 15): "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? . . . You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." This represents God's earnest longing and desire. Can we really believe the resurrection promise? Yes, there is no doubt that God is both willing and able to fulfill it. What does this mean for you? You have the prospect of being reunited with dead loved ones right here on earth but under very different conditions. “ I worked with Edie at Conley Hills and Dodson Drive Elementary in south Fulton County. We were kindred spirits in our theology. One summer several Fulton County buddies, including Edie, took a fun shopping trip to Boaz, AL.

She often talked about her nieces.

Remembering her family in my thoughts and prayers!

“ My love and prayers are with Jeannine, Lamar, and all of the Hayes and Carmichael families.

I have very fond memories of Edie from back in Rhode Island in the 70s. She was a sweet person and had a great sense of humor.

Edie would babysit for my brothers and I. And we would pick her up at Rhode Island College on Sunday mornings and bring us to church with us.

I am sure there was a great reunion in Heaven for Edie this week...and much rejoicing there. But I will miss her until we meet in the Kingdom of Heaven one day.

*Love in Christ,
Sheri*

“Offering sincere condolences in this difficult time. The sting of death can be overwhelming. God gives strength beyond what is normal in difficult times. May family and friends come bearing fond memories in the weeks ahead. Take a moment and reflect on promises from God in His Word at Isaiah 25:8 and John 5:28, 29.
