“ I knew Ms. Queen since 1995. She was always such a prayer warrior and I featured her in a couple of my books as such. Her whole life was a testimony of faith and God's grace. I remember when she broke her hip several years ago, maybe 10. My husband and I went to the hospital, worried the break would be the beginning of her downslide. No such thing! We arrived and there she was, sitting up in bed, her hair freshly done, and holding court! She was back in church just a couple of weeks later (it might have been 3, but it wasn't long). I have missed seeing her since she went into the nursing home. My husband sings with the nursing home ministry and would always report having seen her. She will be missed, but I know all Heaven is holding a celebration at her homegoing.

“ I KNOW THAT MY MOTHER-IN-LAW , JEWELL JAMIESON, WAS WAITING AT THE GATES TO WELCOME MRS. QUEEN HOME. THEY BECAME THE BEST OF FRIENDS AFTER JEWELL CAME TO LIVE WITH US IN BUFORD. THEY WOULD LEAVE CHURCH ON SUNDAY, GO BY ARBY'S TO GET A SANDWICH AND SALAD TO SPLIT. LATER ON THEY WOULD GO VISIT THE ELDERLY AND SHUT-INS. THEY WERE QUITE A PAIR. WHEN MRS QUEEN CAME TO VISIT HERE AT THE HOUSE, WE COULD HEAR THE GIGGLING AND LAUGHING WHILE THEY VISITED IN THE SITTING ROOM. I ENJOYED THE TIME I HAD WITH MRS. QUEEN. I PICKED HER UP FOR CHURCH FOR A LONG TIME UNTIL I HAD HEALTH PROBLEMS. IT WAS A DELIGHT TO STOP BY AND VISIT HER IN THE AFTERNOONS. SHE WAS INDEED A SPECIAL LADY. I LOVED HER DEARLY. SHE WAS A "QUEEN" OF A LADY.

“ I was a young mother in the early 1980's when I moved to Sugar Hill and became involved in Sugar Hill Church. Miss Queen was one of the first people to welcome me and my children. I complimented her on her pound cake and she not only shared her recipe but invited me to her home and taught me to make it. It is the only recipe I use and anytime I share the recipe I call it Miss Queen's poundcake.

“ Mrs. Queen was a dear friend. She sang in the choir when Willie was Worship Leader in Sugar Hill and every Sunday she would tell him that she would be glad to step down so someone could have her chair, he would always tell her no one could take her place, her faithfulness was an inspiration to all. She was a great witness for Jesus in everything she did. My prayers are with the family.

“ Mrs. Queen was one of the most beautiful ladies I ever knew, inside and out. Every hair was always in place and her skin was just beautiful. I always told her I strive to be like her! She was such a loving person, always smiling and showing the love of God! I will miss her hugs and sweet smiles! While she has been missed at church for a while, no one ever forgot this beautiful lady! I am sorry for the family's loss, but, Heaven is rejoicing for having her there! She will be missed, but, never forgotten! My prayers are with you!

“ Edith Queen was one in a million. She was a dear friend to my mother, Beulah Davis Potter as well as my aunt, Nellie Davis. But, she was a very special friend to my aunt, Lena Cross. There are so many special memories attached to these dear ladies and the times they enjoyed together. A cousin, Linda Davis mentioned when she called to tell me of Edith's passing that they claimed Edith as one of their sisters. My heart rejoices for her in her home-going to be with Jesus, but is saddened for those she has left here behind. May our loving heavenly Father give you comfort and peace during this time and the days to come.

“ Ms. Edith was truly one of God's saints! She was an angel among us and she had a direct prayer line to God. The number of people, some she only knew their name, that she prayed for on request of others would be unbelievable. She was a dear friend and "Sister-in-Christ" to my aunt and Ms. Edith's neighbor, Dahlia Titshaw. I'm sure Mr. Queen and Aunt Dahlia were waiting at Heaven's gate to welcome her home. Very few people like Ms. Edith are left to influence younger people. The angels are rejoicing to have this Saint home!
