“ My sincere sympathy to Ed's family. I was sorry to learn of his recent death and remember him as a kind, helpful neighbor many years ago in the Wendover Subdivision in Stone Mountain. One day there was a leak in my water meter with water spraying all over. He happened to be outside and came running over to see if he could help, went back home for tools and handled the problem until the county could get there. Thank you, again, Ed, and rest in peace.

“ I was sad to learn of Ed’s passing and offer my condolences to his family. He and dad were classmates at East Coast Aero Tech and longtime buddies at Northeast/Delta. It was a pleasure to meet him at my dad’s funeral.

“ I met Ed about 9 years ago and always enjoyed speaking with him. He was a member of the POP Golden Corral guys where we met twice a month for lunch. He was famous for his over-the-top dessert creations at those lunches. He is missed.
