

Edward Nolan

May 23, 2013

Edward "Ed" Nolan passed away peacefully surrounded by his ones he laughed with, lived for, and loved on May 23, 2013 at the Peachtree Christian Hospice in Duluth, Georgia.

He was born in New York and moved to Georgia in the early 60's. He is predeceased by his parents Robert and Josephine Nolan and his brothers Robert, Luke, and sister Josephine.

Ed is survived by his wife Rosemary, his daughters Suzanne Morris her husband Kevin, children Jared, Chuck, Chad and Jillian and Dianne Lohff her husband Michael children Christopher and Alexandra. Sons E J Nolan his wife Jennifer, children Kendyl and Jackson. David Nolan, his wife Teresa, children Justin, Kerrigan and Anna Grace and Dennis Nolan, wife Kimberly, child Knox. As well as numerous nieces and nephews, other relatives and many friends he considered family.

Ed was a fun loving, family man with a joke always at the ready. He enjoyed his children and grandchildren, watching football with friends and family and just spending time talking with the ones he loved. He was no stranger to anyone and bragged about his children and grandchildren to all who would listen.

A Mass will be held in honor of Ed Tuesday, May 28th, 2013 at 11:00am at Prince of Peace Catholic Church. Father Juan Francisco Anzora will officiate. And the family invites you as well to a celebration of life held preceding the mass at 10:00 am and request that in lieu of flowers donations be sent to Peachtree Christian Hospice in Ed's name.

“ We remember our church friend Ed Nolan, and his wife Rosemary, sitting in front of us for several years at Prince of Peace. We have missed them the last several weeks, due to Ed's health. One fine Sunday, We invited them to the Cracker Barrel after mass, and had a fun time over "chicken, grits & coffee".

Ed resembled my grandfather in looks, but had a feisty, friendly manner, being humorous with stories we shared, & knowledge about the printing industry. I'll miss him. Ed is now "Home" with Jesus!
