“ Janean and Randy

So sorry to hear about Edwin. I had not heard the news until today. He was one of my Dad's best friends. He was also great encouragement to me when I was taking up the five string, and in fact, he lent me the very first good quality instrument I had for about a year. I know you will miss him and you are both in my thoughts.

“ Jannean, I just heard this last night. I'm so sorry to not have been there sooner. I love you and I know God does so much more and He will always be right there with you, even in you, just lean on Him and His grace and comfort. It's only a matter of time till we see our loved ones again, and our Savior most of all. Love and prayers <3

“ To the family of Edwin I want to express my condolences. With love and support coping is made easier but with God all things are possible. God can provide comfort and hope for those we have lost. Please consider Revelation 21:4 and John 5:28,29.
