“ Mitch was a good man and raised a great family. I remember first meeting him when he drove up to my grandmother's house in a beautiful blue Corvair. He has been an asset to our family over the years and a great uncle to me. I wish his immediate family the very best.

“ Mitch was a man that once you met him you would walk away saying to yourself "What a nice guy" I was privileged to have known him. He was a great husband and a great father to his four children , Debbie, David, Lorie and Donna.. You could see they adored their Father.. I'm sure God will open the gates of Heaven to Mitch. We will see you on the other side Mitch. God is waiting for you.
