“ To the family of Miss Eleanor.so sorry for the passing of such a sweet lady. she was a wonderful person. Several years back her class had a reunion and my brother was in her class. he passed away in 1954. after the reunion she called me to come get the flowers they had used. I picked them up and put them in Sugar Hill Church in memory of Ernest Porter Jr. that was the kind of person Eleanor was. she was loved by all that knew her.RIP MISS ELEANOR you will be missed in Buford for sure. love to the family
