

Eleanor Landress Cook

December 2, 2018

Eleanor Landress Cook of Johns Creek, Georgia passed away December 2, 2018 from complications due to a stroke. Gerry, as she is known by family and friends, was born in Rome, Georgia in 1930 to John Robert and Eleanor Parker Landress. In 1951, Gerry married Richard Ray Cook and had 5 children. After being widowed in 1965, Gerry and her family relocated from Escondido, California to Georgia, where she was employed with the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, retiring in 1993. After retirement, she juggled volunteer work and being a grandmother, frequently using the phrase, "I got things to do!" Gerry spent the last 14 years in the company of Richard Wakefield, a retiree of the Atlanta Journal-Constitution. Gerry is survived by her 3 sons, Richard Ray Cook II, Christopher Cook and Michael Cook; 2 daughters, Cathy DeReimer (Rose) and Mary Nix; 3 grandchildren, Kevin Johns, Stephen Nix and Laura Nix; and 2 great-grandsons, Riley Cook and Wyatt Cook. A memorial service will be held at Flanigan Funeral Home in Buford, Georgia on Saturday, December 15 at 10:00am, with visitation beginning at 9:30am. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to the American Cancer Society in Gerry's memory.

“ Chris I'm sorry about your Mom. May God bless you and your family and my prayers are with you all

VIVIAN Robinson - December 07, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ I'm so very sorry for your loss. But may the words of Jesus Christ that are found in John 5:28,29 give you an added reason to hope in the resurrection that he is speaking about and may all these words bring some real relief in the coming days.
