“ Choosing my favorite memory of Eli is nearly impossible, because there are so many amazing ones. From Easter egg hunts where he would try to run so fast he tumbled over, to watching him dance and play around everyone at family events. He had so much love to share and oh, how he shared it with everyone. Eli was the smiliest, most tickle-y, sweetest, dance loving boy in the world. I am so blessed to have known him. The light that he left in this world will never dim. I love you all 💙

“ Everytime Eli would visit me, he would run to me screaming my name and start tickle each other. He was my tickle buddy, we would laugh. Oh how I'm going to miss my little tickle buddy. Fly high my sweet angel. Love uncle Todd

“ Eli was a one in a million. His smile as soon as he walked in the door, well danced, made every family event a fun one. The endless dinosaur roars we shared back and forth, priceless. Nothing will ever be the same without him. But knowing that we have this sweet boy watching over us. The rooms will be still be lit up because there wasn't a time when Eli wasn't smiling. He genuinely made anyone happy with his contagious smile. We love you so much sweet boy.

“ There was this one time we all went to visit Peggy in The Villages, we were sitting at the square listening to the band sing and Eli came up to me and started to play with me grab my hat and turn it around and just stuff like that.. well I was sitting there and I heard Eli whispering something in my ear and he's calling me pumpkin head. Ever since that day he'll randomly say hey pumpkin head and hey pumpkinnnnnn. I'll never ever forget that night...

“ Eli was not only my nephews child, he was like my own grandchild. I remember the time at the beach when we were coming in from the ocean and I was carrying him over the waves when one knocked both of us down. I was trying to keep him up and he was more helping me. Lol. Never saw him sad, I will miss you Eli, I am glad God chose you to be part of our family.

“ This is the hardest thing I've ever had to do.
My sweet Eli, I loved our vacations, especially when it's just you and myself, getting up in the mornings, when we shared our breakfast, I sat and listened to your wild and crazy stories, but loving every one you told and oh my how I loved to see you dance.
Save a dance for me.
Love you so much
Grandma

“ *This is the hardest thing I've ever done.
My sweet Eli, if you just know how much I love you and miss you.
We have so many fun memories of you.
I enjoyed getting up early with you and having my cup of coffee while you eat your cereal, and you would talk and tell me so many stories.
Now you are my angel, who will never be forgotten, dance your little heart out, save me a dance. Till I see you again.
Love you
Grandma*

“ Eli was the happiest kid I know and is missed so very much already! His smile and laughter were contagious. I miss our afternoons of talking, laughing, and tap dancing before he left to go back to his mom's room. I thank God and the Fondren's for sharing Eli with me this year and allowing me to be his teacher. A piece of my heart is now in heaven. Rest in peace, my sweet buddy. I love you, Eli Fondren!

“ Eli was in my Pre-K class. He was such a fun student. Eli's day was made for play and fun! He made friends fast and easily. What a treasure. The way he looked at me with soft, shy eyes and a sly smile when he was bustin' a dance move instead of sitting for a lesson. Sweet and precious; imbedded in my heart!

Joe,

Eli was in my class this year and I want you to know that you were special to him! He always looked forward to Front Porch Fridays and seeing Mr. Joe. He recently told me all about your camper and how cool it was. Just know he thought you were the best neighbor too! :)
