Elias had a tender heart to the Lord and loved to spend time talking to Him and worshipping Him in church services, prayer meetings, and times at home when it was just him and God. Today as we lay Elias to rest it is our prayer that the life he lived will be a testament to others of the goodness of God. His life may have been brief, but it was full of kindness, happiness and love. We pray that we can all keep his memory alive by being as kind and caring as Elias was, and like him, serving God with our whole hearts.

“ One of my favorite memories is when he taught Ryan how to tie his shoes, they were so little, and Ryan was a lefty. We couldn't get Ryan to do it, but Elias sat across from him in the floor at Mama's house and showed Ryan how. Something clicked and he was able to do it every day after that one day. He will be missed. We love you all. - The Duncan's
