“ I just now saw this post on Facebook about Beth's passing. Im so sad to hear she's not with us anymore. I always loved talking to Beth. She was a sweet caring person and a good listener. She also could play the flute beautifully. God Bless your sweet soul Beth. Say hello to my Brother Johnny when you arrive in heaven . He always thought a lit of you as well. RIP my sweet friend Beth 🙏🙏🙏❤️

“ BJ, Travis & Miles, My thoughts and prayer are sent to you in this time of loss. No more pain for Sweet Beth and she is with her Lord and Savior now! I always enjoyed being around Beth and all the United Pump & Controls Family at work or on some of the company trips that we all got to make back in the day. She was always such a pleasure to be with and around. She will truly be missed. May God bless you all in this time. Ron Porter

“ BJ, Travis, and Miles I am so sorry for your loss, I feel I do not have the words to express what you are going through. Beth was one of the nicest most caring people that I have had the privilege of knowing. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers wishing you strength in this difficult time. I am sorry so for your loss and wish you the best during your grieving process. David Babcock

“ B.J., I am so sorry to hear this news about Beth. As I read the comments others have posted, it becomes clear that everyone who came in contact with Beth saw the same beautiful smile and sincere kindness that I saw. I know you will miss her, but I also know that you will rejoice in knowing that she is healed and happy with the Lord. I pray for you and the boys as you go through the next few days and the weeks to come.

“ BJ, Travis and Miles, want you to know that you are in my prayers. It has always been a pleasure visiting at United Pump, but when Beth was present, there was just something extra special added to the visit; always loved what she added to the atmosphere. Needless to say, she is going to be greatly missed by many. May God bless each of you, now and in the days ahead. Thanks to all for the kindness shown to me. Joel Richards

“ BJ I am so sorry to hear about Beth. I know that you rejoice in her healing, but mourn her physical loss on this earth. We have the Blessed Hope that we will be with our Lord and Savior Jesus one day. It is so hard when they leave, but we will see each other again. I will be praying for God's peace for you and those who loved her to encompass you in these coming days.

“Beth was always in that special category of "the nicest person you will ever meet". She always had a smile for you. We are so sorry for your families loss and please know that our prayers are said to try and lift you up in this trying time. May Beth rejoice in God's kingdom and may you find peace in God's word.

“I was sitting at the kitchen table with Aunt Beth and Uncle BJ, being my normal quiet and shy self as I always was back then. I was told I needed to talk about my day and use at least a hundred words to do so. I put my hands in my lap and started recounting my day. In the middle of a sentence I stopped because I had been counting every word on my fingers where they couldn't see. I can remember them laughing at that. I'm still a reserved person, but I'm no longer afraid or feel foolish for talking because she made me feel like my words mattered. I didn't see Aunt Beth very often after my teenage years, but no matter how long it had been it felt like nothing had changed even though life was so different. She showed me love and kindness and always made me feel welcome as I know she did with so many people. If you were talking to Aunt Beth, a smile and laughter was pretty much guaranteed. I love you Aunt Beth, and I will miss you until I see you again in Heaven. - Bobby Alston

“ Beth had the sweetest heart in the world. She is the living fruits of the spirit. Always brought joy to people around her, even when she was fighting her serious illness. Our Sunday School lost a faithful servant of Jesus. Will cherish the memories of her smiles and kind words.

BJ, condolences from Steven and me. We pray that the Lord will comfort you and give you His strength and peace in this difficult time.
