“ So sorry about your Mom. We lived next door to you all on Atlanta Hwy. She was one of the sweetest people I know. I am sure she is with God now. Take care of each other.

“ Clay, Claire, and family,

Ms. Beth was one the kindest and sincere women I've ever met. She treated me always with love and went out of her way to make me feel loved. I will miss her dearly. I'm praying for you and hope God gives you peace as you go through this.

“ Claire,

I am so sorry for your loss. I met your mom only once, but, I remember she was so kind to me. Like I said on Facebook, she was worried that we hadn't eaten supper yet that day we went to Atlanta. That's a testament to her character and hospitality. I know she is in heaven cheering you on as you make your way through vet school. Prayers and hugs for you and your family.

“ Beth,

Mom and I wished we could have reconciled our relationship with you before you passed from this Earth. I know there were hard times, but it could have been a bit easier had we done this. May you rest in peace and now be free from your long battle of this illness.

“ Clay and Claire, I am so sorry for your loss!! It is one of the hardest things you will ever face but you can get through it. Just hold on to the thought that your mom is in heaven, running the streets of gold with NO PAIN. Knowing that will be what gets you through this. There will always be that pain but we know we will all be together again one day. We are all here for you if you need anything any time of day or night, but you know that. Beth was very proud of you two, you were what kept her going all these years. Unfortunately these earthly bodies can't last forever but we know our heavenly bodies will!! We love you both very much!!
