“ Linda and family, I am so sorry to learn of June's death. I know words will not lessen your pain at this time but my deepest sympathy comes your way.

June will be fondly remembered in the Pleasant hill family. She was always willing to do whatever was needed in and around the church. I remember her dressing us as Santa Claus and visiting old people and shut ins at Christmas time which brought big smiles to faces with little to smile about. She was a wonderful person and will be remembered with a smile.
