“ I remember when she built the stepping stone path in her back yard and her love for nature from her bedroom chair by the window. Our children shared life together, and I remember Beth with great affection. God bless your family. You are in my prayers. Beth Bühler Bailey

“ I first met Beth as a coworker at Smith, Gambrell & Russell. When we first met we instantly clicked. We talked and laughed about any and everything. She was such a great person and even a greater friend. She was devoted to her family and spoke of them all the time. I will miss her dearly.

To Jimmy, Taylor, Maddie, Parker and Family, Slim and I send our deepest condolences and prayers for peace and healing.

“ Dear Jimmy, Taylor, Maddie, Parker, and Family,

Beth will be dearly missed at our annual Thanksgiving and Christmas family gatherings. We especially missed seeing her this past year due to the fatigue she was experiencing; but we were glad she was up to sharing those celebrations with Taylor, Maddie, their spouses, Parker, and her precious grandchildren. She beamed with pride when telling us about her children and grandchildren. Beth leaves behind a legacy of courage, perseverance, and grace in life's challenges for us to emulate.

Praying the Lord's Peace, Comfort, and Strength to you all,

“ Sending my heartfelt condolences to Beth's family, namely her cherished children and adores grandchildren. I had the pleasure to work with Beth for the past five years at Seyfarth Shaw. I will never forget her beautiful smile, spunky personality and our big heart. We texted weekly up until the New Year and the news of her passing saddened me. She loved hard and fought well and is now at rest! May she rest peacefully...

“ Condolences and respects to the family. My family met the Carey’s when they moved in down the street from us on Wake Forest Road the summer of ‘72. They quickly became “2nd family”. Beth was a few years older, so we didn’t “hang out”, but she was like a big sis for many years. I didn’t see her for years at a time, but when I did, it was like we were in the old neighborhood again.

An early memory was a rare occasion in 1974 that she went to the skating rink with us “little kids”. I can still see Beth and her friends skating & jamming out to the “disco version” of ‘The Lords Prayer’ by sister Janet Mead. ~ I know she’s in heaven smiling that she got to be ‘first’ to see Shirley and Gus. ~ I hope her heavenly chariot is a Green Gran Torino in the sky! Rest in peace, sweet lady!

“ Beth will surely be missed in our family. She was such a beautiful, Godly woman. Her memories will be everlasting thru her beautiful sewing and quilts that she made! She and Jimmy were an inspiration to each other. Beth, you no longer suffer with pain. You were a strong Warrior to endure all this. Prayers go out to Jimmy and Beth's family.
