In Loving Memory of Elizabeth A. Mazza

July 24, 1948 – August 25, 2025

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Elizabeth A. Mazza, who was called home to eternal peace on August 25, 2025. Born on July 24, 1948, in Amityville, NY, Elizabeth was a devoted daughter, wife, mother, grandmother, and cherished family member in countless other roles. Elizabeth was predeceased by her father, Mathias Knussman; her mother, Alma Knussman; her brothers, Martin Knussman and Gary Knussman; and her beloved son, John B. Mazza.

She is survived by her loving husband of 58 years, John V. Mazza; her daughter, Larissa D'Apice (Pete); and her five adoring grandchildren, Brianna D'Apice, John M. Mazza, Peter D'Apice, Georgia Mazza, and Sophia Mazza. Family was Elizabeth's greatest joy and a cornerstone of her life. Alongside her deep love for her family, Elizabeth had an immense passion for cooking. Although not of Italian descent, she embraced her husband's heritage, mastering the art of Italian cooking and delighting in preparing traditional dishes. Every Christmas Eve, she made the legendary seven fishes, even though she never ate fish herself—her love for family traditions always came first.

Elizabeth also had a great fondness for oldies music, often dancing joyfully around her home, which was always filled with the warmth and laughter of loved ones.

Though we grieve her unexpected loss, we find comfort in knowing that Elizabeth is no longer in pain. Her departure has left a profound void in the hearts of her family and all who had the privilege of knowing her. Yet, her legacy of love, joy, and unwavering devotion will live on in our hearts forever. Rest in peace, Elizabeth. You will never be forgotten.
