“ Elsie was like a second mom to me as Dwight and I were growing up. I have such fond memories of our escapades under the watchful eye of Elsie. Unfortunayely, I moved away from Atlanta at the beginning of my sophomore year at Southwest and lost touch. Dwight and I were reunited via Facebook several years ago. I asked about his mom and he suggested I call her. What a great discussion it was after all these years. Elsie made a great impression on my young life and I thank her for that. She is in God's hands now.
