“ I am celebrating a life well lived. The ultimate fashionistas of Buford are together again. One thing we all know.... Mother Brooks believed in HIGH fashion and high heel shoes. lol. She was the ultimate DIVA without the attitude. Neither she nor Deacon Brooks were pretentious, just good old home folks. I can vividly remember spending most Sunday afternoons with her and Deacon Brooks while we waited for evening programs to begin at Union. They opened their door welcoming and adopting our family without hesitation. The fellowship and food was always on point. Mother Brooks was a sweetheart always pittling around to attend to every need. She taught me the secret of cooking the most delicious black eyed peas.

God, we bless you for allowing Mother Emmaline Brooks to pour into our lives. Thank you God for her sweet spirit and calm demeanor. Please comfort the family and friends who knew and loved her. May we all cherish the wonderful memories forevermore.

Emma line was a wonderful lady. She was a second Mother to girls I our office. Emma line was loved by all. She was "family".

I know she is happy with Broughton I can see them dressed in the first clothes.

Emmaline, you were loved and respected. We will always have our memories of both you and Brighton.

Rest In Peace.
