“ We am so sorry for the loss of such a wonderful lady. She was always so gracious to our family every time we met. I am so thankful she welcomed our daughter Stacy into her home and heart. She is a wonderful example of all that we should try to be in life. We were honored to know her. We offer prayers of comfort to all of her family in this time of sorrow. God Bless everyone who knew her.

“ Granny You will be missed by many, I will miss your stories about your childhood and life in general. I have never met anyone that had a memory quite like yours- your ability to pull stories from the past and bring them to life always kept me asking more questions and wanting to hear more. Not many can say they had a grandmother that had birthed 13 children (most of them at home)- lived through the great depression, a world war and still held a family together and made it possible for 129 people to have life. I want to hear more of your stories and we will talk again in another place at another time. Love you!
