“ Sad to see you have passed Mae. My husband and I have thought about you since we moved from Lawrenceville in 2017. We loved having you and Dorsey as neighbors! After he passed, I enjoyed our talks on. your front porch in those antique rocking chairs! You were a very sweet lady! I'll never forget you and Dorsey watching out your window when Greg and I got married in our backyard. :) Rest in peace sweet lady xo

“ My dear Aunt Mae, you were as precious as life to me. You were like my second Mom, even when my own mother was living. You were my confident, my best friend and no end to what you meant to me. You were such a beautiful special lady, as well as Uncle Dorsey a special man It was so hard to lose him, but I had you. Now God has called you to come be with him. I know you are happy, But my heart hurts so bad, I am sorry I am so selfish, but I loved you that much. My world feels empty. My prayers are with you, Joe and all your family as you try to heal from this great loss. Much love to all of you. Ruth Bailey

“ Mae Smith threw open the doors of her life to welcome her long deceased sister-in-law's son into the family. To say that she went above and beyond is inadequate. She was a special lady. I'm smiling now, knowing that she and her Dorsey are once again side by side, and in a place where illness and troubles don't exist.

“ Yesterday, I lost a best friend and a sister. When I married Gary, both Dorsey and Mae were standing by our side at White Bluff Methodist Church. From that moment forward, she and I became closer with every passing day. We talked almost every day and shared so many personal thoughts. So, even though she was my sister-in-law, she was really my sister. I will miss you every day and I love you so very much. Many prayers for each and every member of your family as they try to heal from their loss of a beautiful soul
