

Ezra Joshua Brown

September 8, 2025

In the early hours of Monday, September 8, just before he was to make his grand entrance into the world, our sweet baby Ezra Joshua Brown went to be with Jesus instead. He never knew a single breath of heartache in this life. We dreamed so many dreams for our sweet Ezra. We chose the name "Ezra Joshua," which means "Yahweh Helps" and "Yahweh Saves," in the hopes that he would always look to God first as he faced challenges in his life. Now his name serves as a reminder to us as we face life without him, that God is the One who can and will help us through our heartbreak.

Ezra was and is so deeply loved, not only by his family, but by a beautiful community of people who were so excited to meet him. Preceding him in death were great grandparents, Darrell and Becky Higgins Born; great grandmother Mary Anne Young; great-grandparents Anne and Gilbert Sanford. Ezra Joshua is survived by parents, Pastor Zach Brown and Karen Young Brown; brother, Caleb Brown; maternal grandparents, Albert and Vicki Young of Sugar Hill, GA; paternal grandparents, Angy Born Lamb and husband Louis Lamb of Sugar Hill, and Mark Brown of Flowery Branch; great grandfather, Charles Young of Metter, GA; uncle, Aaron Young of Jewett City, CT; uncle and aunt, Brian and Patricia Payne of Oakwood, GA; and numerous other relatives and friends.

One thing that we hold to most right now - we will see you again, Ezra Joshua Brown, in all the fullness of who you were made to be. What a day of rejoicing that will be, our sweet boy.

PS

Karen and Zach, I have no words but offer my deepest sympathy and warmest regards as you grieve the loss of this precious child. Knowing he's with Jesus, and he will never suffer any of the cares of this fallen world, may comfort you in time to come. God bless you and keep you until He reunites you. ❤️
