“ I want the family to know that Farrar was the star of our Peace Corps group. There were 70 of us who went to the Philippines. Farrar was outstanding in the way she went above and beyond teaching by forming an arts group with her high school students. They raised money and attended plays and concerts. As you know, they kept in touch with her until recently. This did not happen with others in the Peace Corps group. She was truly amazing.

“ Stephanie, my thoughts and prayers are with you all. Farrar was very special to my mom, Gloria (Ann)... and we spent many many days at her house for informal gatherings...a meal... hanging out... and yes playing scrabble! I have a lot of fond memories of your mother. She will be missed. Thank you for sharing this to those who could not be there. - Candice (Moore) Groves

“ Have you ever met someone and knew they'd never leave you? Well, that's how I felt when I met Mrs. Atkinson, or fondly known as Granny. When she gives you her attention, it's not just her attention that she gives. She gives you her all, and that's heavily sugarcoated with kindness, compassion, true thought and care. She was genuine and truly wanted to hear everything you had to say. She may not have been much of a hugger, but her love will never be forgotten by those who knew her. She'll always live on through each person's she's given her life to, each person who has known her, each person she's still with. Her vessel may no longer be here, but she'll remain forever in our hearts. Mrs Atkinson is unforgettable. She'll live on as an angel and keep close watch as always and ever before. Goodnight, Mrs. Atkinson. You'll not be forgotten. Thank you.

“Farrar (Ate Far) gave my wife Mae and me an unforgettable grand tour of her hometown of Gwinnett County and area when we visited her in 2017. She showed us around including the Freeman’s Mill Park, Alcovy River, Alcova Baptist Church, and Gwinnett County Historic Courthouse. She showed true Southern hospitality beating the Filipino hospitality by miles. We will miss her down to earth grace and humility.

You will light up heaven with your little bell-laugh; all our loved ones will enjoy your fabulous stories.
