“ Dear Craig and family,

We were so sorry to hear that Faye passed away. She fought a hard fight and now she is resting peacefully in the arms of the Lord.

We met you in October when we were on our way back from a sale in KY. We visited Dean's brother in Rome, GA while Herman and Judy were visiting you. We're so glad that it worked in our schedule so they could spend time with you.

“ Dear Craig, Steven, Sara, Suzie and Families,

Life is never easy, and this is one of the hardest moments.

Remembering all the good times we had in Brick, and knowing Mom is definitely singing with the angels. Each day as I look across the street, that gray house will always be the Schmidle house. Thinking of you and sending our Love and prayers, take it one day at a time, look for those pennies and feathers from heaven, it's Faye!
