Frances, we all are missing you. We love you, but we must realize that God loved you more, we are thankful to the Lord for loaning you to this family for 67 years! I remember your last words to me were “Jesus Loves Me.” So, I know when he opened the gates of heaven to welcome you and Mom was there waiting to receive her baby. I also know as much as the family misses you right now you are where you want to be and that’s in our savior’s presence and in our mother’s arms.

Sweet, Sweet, Sweet Francis. My dearest sister is gone from this life to be with sweet Jesus. Although we didn't talk via phone as much. She always asked my sisters about me, and spoke great things about me, which was her nature for caring and speaking well of her family. I hold great memories of standing by her bedside and to hear her repeatedly saying it unashamedly, with her hands raise Into the heaven, saying, "God loves me." I will forever treasure these precious moments. Her last words in this life with me at her bedside reminds me of Stephen, who looked into the heaven and saw Jesus on the right side of Father. Sweet, Sweet, Sweet Francis saw something better, and refused to let go. I say in her absence from this life, well done sweet sister. Enter into the joy of the Lord.

Tribute to My Sister Frances P.

*I can shed tears that you gone
but I choose to smile because you have lived.*

I can close my eyes and pray that you will come back but I choose to open my eyes and see all you had left to give

I can remember you, and only be sad that you are gone but I choose to cherish your precious memory and let it live on.

*I can cry and close my eyes
and be empty and turn away
but I choose to do what I know you would want open my eyes, smile, and prepare to see you again someday.*
