

Frank Edward Gale

October 13, 2016

Frank Edward Gale, age 88, of Buford, GA passed away on Thursday, October 13, 2016. Frank E. Gale was born 5/25/28. Frank is survived by sons David Gale, Don Gale, and daughter Lori Shelton. Frank served in the Marine Corps, of which he was very proud as he served his country. He also was a devoted family man and father who loved life and sharing that life with his loved ones, family and friends.

Frank loved driving commercially, and did so up into his late seventies. He owned his own equipment and traveled throughout the country to provide for his family. Frank also had many hobbies which included owning many horses, riding them, and also riding his motorcycle. Frank's latest hobby was restoring a sail boat in his back yard. While he never launched the boat, he enjoyed working on it and thinking of the day he would.

Frank's zest for life remained with him up until his passing. Frank will be sadly missed by many. His family and many friends will always remember and admire his passion for life, his love for all people, and his beloved dog Sandy. “ *Uncle Frank was truly a blessing to my entire family. He will always be remembered as our "cool" uncle. Always fun to be around and so good to us. He had many stories to tell and was a champion at making us feel like his own. He will truly be missed but the memories of his journey here are plenty. He will be in our conversations till we meet again. Thank you God for sparing him prolonged suffering and a life that was not typical of who he was. Please bless and be with our cousin's as they go through these sad days ahead without him.
Love you so much Uncle Frank and thank you for being the man we admired, you're the best of the best!
