“ My dad Lee Roy Luther Sr. Was cousins to Frank And Roberta. As a kid I'll never forget Frank and Diane came to visit us in Va. they had their camper with them. Problem was Frank couldn't back it up. Lol. So they called my dad from pay phone in town to come get them because he knew he he drove to our house he couldn't get turned around. I always loved coming to visit and hear the stories of my dads youth. Uncle Roy and Aunt Mary took my dad in to raise him after my dads mom uncle Roy's sister passed away when my dad was 7. Frank was like a brother to my dad and I'll forever be great full to him. Love you Frank! Rest In Peace. I know your so glad to be with your bride again. I'm sure my dad was one of the first ones to greet you at heavens gates..

“ Frank was a special person. From the time we moved next door to him in 2009 we became friends. He loved his walks and let me join on those walks often. He was there when you needed him and always had a smile. Going to miss him dearly but know he is happy to be with Diane again who he shared some stories about from time to time.

“ Uncle Frank loved me like his own. When Aunt Diane passed we formed a bond that could never be broken! He was my rock and I was his! When I lost my parents Uncle Frank and Aunt Diane stepped in and showed up at my house and helped watch my babies!! They showed me an unconditional love!!!! I’m so glad they’re finally together!!!! ”
