

Frank Alexander Sbrocco

October 29, 2013

Frank Alexander Sbrocco received eternal peace on October 29th. He was preceded in death by his parents Jennie and Dominic Sbrocco and sister-in-law, Eleanor Sbrocco. He is survived by his wife of 67 years, Jean Rose Sbrocco along with daughters and son-in law Karen Turk, Janet and Steve Russell. Brother: Pasquale Sbrocco; Sister and brother-in-law Joanne and Michael Kulway. Grandchildren: Jon, Michael and Genevieve Russell. Great grandchild: Ayva Anderson; and many nieces and nephews who loved their "one of a kind" uncle. Frank was born and raised in Cleveland Ohio; served as an altar boy at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church; and established life long relationships through "Collinwood Memories"; an on going endearing group of high school classmates. He worked at White Sewing Machine and was later employed by various tool and die companies until his retirement. In his later years Jean and Frank settled in Mentor, Ohio before their final move to Buford, Ga. in August, 2012. Frank was truly indescribable with his own brand of wit, humor and language. He was a loved man. His struggle now over; his memory forever cherished.

“ I only met Mr. Sbrocco once for a few days while visiting in Mentor, but we hit it off well fairly quickly. He was older of course and a bit frail, but I was able to make him feel safe with me. He truly appreciated it when I helped him with things around his house. I could tell that these were things he could easily do in his younger years but if we are lucky, age eventually catches up with all of us. He made the entire trip for me. He was so happy that I was helping him and then while in his garage he looked at me and said "I'm so glad you are my friend". I will never forget that. He seemed like such a sweet man. Helping people has always been fun and it was very much fun to help him as I could tell he really appreciated it. I wish I knew him in his younger days as I'm certain we would have gotten along just fine. I am very happy I met him although since I did, it's a personal loss. My sincere condolences to all who knew and loved him. May he rest eternally in peace and remain in the hearts and memory of all who knew and loved him.

“ Aunt Jay, Karen and Janet,

I just saw Uncle Frank's notice in the Cleveland Plain Dealer. I am sorry that you had to lose your Dad, but I know that my Dad Frank was there to greet him when he passed to his eternal and greater life. I can just picture him now wise cracking to my Dad! I have the loveliest memories of Uncle Frank as a loving and kind man seeing him most recently at my brother and Dad's funeral.

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the Sbrocco family. I know this is a difficult time for your family and I hope during a quiet moment you find solace in the reassurance that is found in the Bible at Rev 21:4 it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, pain and death will be no more... The former things have passed away."

so sorry we lost our funnest Uncle Frank. He was the only man that ever tried to teach me to dance. And I loved his jokes. You two went together like ham and eggs. Just want you to know you have more family down in Georgia. I just moved to Atlanta, and I would love the opportunity to see you and give you a big hug from all of your brother Frankie's kids.
Call me. Love, Janice
