“ To Brenda and all...

I was extremely saddened to hear of Uncle Fred's passing. I hope that the memories of that extremely charming man help you as you work through your grief.

I will always remember Fred as the one with the huge smile and a twinkle in his eye that seemed to be saying... "You know what we should do?". The best part was we never knew what was coming next...but we knew it would be fun.

I am picturing him in Heaven, sitting around in lawn chairs with Grandpa (smoking a pipe), Dad (drinking a beer) and Grandma (making poppyseed cake), and talking about how lucky they were to have had such loving families on earth...and how much fun the volleyball game will be when the rest of us join them.

*I loved him and will miss him dearly...my thoughts are with you all as you go through this loss. Love, Kathy (Mauritz) Mancell, “ Brenda and family, I was shocked to hear Fred had passed. He was so helpful to me and my husband each time we were at the market. We didn't know you two that well but; felt as though we had known you longer.

May God bless you and your family this time of loss.

“ I was sorry to hear about Uncle Fred's passing. Brenda I hope you are doing well considering your unexpected loss. Brenda you always struck me a strong person so use that quality in the next few days to help cope best you can.

Uncle Fred was always the first to suggest that a spirited Family Volleyball game would be a great jump start to all our summer gatherings. Not one person of able body was allowed to sit any of the games out, or Fred would call them out. Fun times that I miss. Thanks Fred..

“ I only had the pleasure of knowing Fred for about the past year. I enjoyed talking with him and seeing him at the market. He was always smiling and happy and glad to show you around the market. To me, he was like a big kid. He enjoyed his Christmas train/snow village and doing things for children. He and Brenda made a wonderful couple and I really grew to love them both very much. Fred will be greatly missed. Prayers and peace to his entire family. God bless, Pam
