“ Gail I've had a hard time with this. I hate I got sick so we couldn't do things like we use to. Every summer we would take a trip to Parsons. We each bought that years Department 59's Christmas House. We had so much fun, we bought a little fudge then headed out to eat. Something I will never forget. So fun. I remember also the trips to Gatlinburg and Pigeon Forge. Gosh how many times did we go there? You were my sweet, kind, precious, beautiful friend and I'm having a hard time letting you go. Thank you Gail for all my happy memories I love you with all my heart. I'll see you again sweet friend. 🥰

“ My cousin Gail, it has been so many years since we have seen each other, almost 55 years to be exact, I think we were both about 16 years old in 1965. Although we lived so far apart our whole lives, we still managed to keep in touch. I will miss you dear cousin, my memories of us as kids will always be special for me. Especially the summer of 1960 at the family reunion in Lake Champlain in Vermont. Rest in peace Gail, I send my love to my cousin

“ I met Gail years ago when she was a bus driver for the students with special needs that I teach in Gwinnett County. She had a love of those children and a passion for making their lives better. She brightened my life and the lives of those around her. I got to know Gail even better when she was diagnosed with breast cancer. I had been through the experience before and so I shared what I could in hopes of making the journey less difficult for her. I wanted her to know she was not alone in the fight. As fate would have it, unfortunately, both of us had recurrences of our cancer. We were both Stage 4 Warriors then-“sisters” in the club neither of us wanted to be in. But, as I’d remind her, at least we have each other! We prayed for each other, supported one another, and even joked around about it at times! I love you, sweet, forever friend. I miss you so much! “ Gail was a wonderful friend and step-mom. She was a loving person that I will always respect for her care of my son, Bradley Burton and my father, Roy Scribner. I cherish the time I had her in my life. It's comforting to know she now with Dad and Bradley. Thank God for her and her influence on so many lives. Janis Burton
