“ To my dear friend Gary Dean you will be missed very much. it was said to me that your smile could light up a room when you walked in. and now those rooms will be very dim without you here. The bible says our life is but a vapor and to soon we depart from here leaving our love ones to carry on without us. But think about it this way. If our life is a vapor we'll be together again real soon. We need to take comfort in knowing that Jesus went to prepare us a place and he will return for us. If this was not so he would have told us. So this gives me great comfort in knowing we will see each other again .So I'll leave you with this you old cowboy! Happy trails to you until we meet again. Happy trails to you so long for now my friend. we'll be together on the other side and then we'll go for a ride. So happy trails to you until we meet again. P.S. I understand Jesus has a white horse and I'm looking forward to seeing it.
