“ We became friends after I moved to Jefferson. You helped me with a lot of home projects and found me several antiques. We have taken several trips. We talked about how we wished we could have met 20 or 30 years ago. You don't know how much I will miss you little brother.

“ The Farley's are lifting all the Brown family up in prayer at this precious time. We will miss our Buddy, great family friend, and the best Neighbor I have ever had. We have been through so much together for 27 years here in Sugarhill, Ga. George always watched our back as well as us trying to watch his. He has shared his beautiful family with Dan and I as we watched Shonda and Robert and Destiny and Jayce and Ryker grow up. Amazing family. We will always cherish the precious times we had together in good and bad times. I will miss giving him meals and desserts in the evening and sharing stories. Boy, George loves chocolate!! We have all been through a lot together. We Wish all our condolences to all of you as we cherish all the great memories. It will be quite different looking down at the end of our driveway and not having our buddy with us. May he now watch over all his family and protect them from above. May God bless you all as we rejoice and celebrate his life. Now he is free. He is free Indeed. Praise the Lord. Sincerely, Daniel and Tami Farley

I'm so sorry Shonda. My heart goes out to you and family during this difficult time. Just knowing he's in a better place comforts the pain.

John 11:25-26: "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die."

I love you. Your best friend always and forever. Michael

We want to express our deepest sympathy to the family for your loss. It is one of the most difficult times to experience in the passing of a loved one. Our prayer is that we pray to our Lord Jesus that he will always hold George in his arms and provide comfort to the family, and always bless them. James and Patricia Ragsdale, Spotsylvania, VA..
