“ Dear George, I will miss your shy grin when I would stop and say hello while picking up Taylor for church or for coffee and school work many years ago. I thought it was funny how you called me "that church lady." I love your youngest kid like a little sibling. Thanks for always trusting me with them. Taylor is always willing to help me out just like I've been told you helped out everyone else. Thank you for being there for Taylor. I know you must be very proud of them for being there with you in your final days on earth. That's a big, big love.

“ I never got to thank you in person but thank you for being a great dad to my best friend. Thank you for providing a safe space for them that was filled with love and acceptance. It was an honour to hear all the stories of your growth, love, and compassion. Your humour was admired. I will miss the videos Taylor would send me of you two. I promise to be there for Taylor the best way that I know how. Rest easy, rest peaceful.

“ Thank you for always loving me & accepting me. For that alone, you were the greatest dad in the world, the best dad I could ever ask for. I miss you so much, and I promise to do everything I can to make you proud. I will miss your sense of humor, your wit, and the charisma you carried everywhere you go. You taught me to be open-minded & tolerant, to make friends everywhere I go, and to always work hard for what I want. Thank you for giving everything of yourself to me, in order to make my life as good as it can be. You did a great job, and now you can Rest In Peace. I love you Dad!
