“ Chief Everett gave me my start in law enforcement back in 1973. He gave me a shot at it when no one else would. He was a hard working man who expected the same from those he employed, teaching us and keeping a guiding hand on us. He had a strong personality but a kind heart. He had a wonderful sense of humor that always came out in unexpected ways. Whenever I hear his name mentioned, the first thing I do is smile.

Everyone who knew him in our profession learned from him and incorporated parts of his teachings into our professional make up. In that way he will live on forever in each of us, influencing and guiding our actions. I will miss him as a mentor. Most importantly I will miss him as my friend. To Frances, you and yours are part of our family, never hesitate to call when needs arise. We are there for you.
