Ms. Davis was born on February 27, 1939, in Miami, FL.

She attended the University of Miami and dreamed of being a fashion designer. However, like many of us, she ended up pursuing a different career path. Always independent, she moved to Chicago and worked at the beautiful La Salle Hotel as their concierge which she loved. She then worked for the government as a buyer but quickly learned that wasn't her passion. However, this is where she found her calling. She studied and became an astrologer. She wrote a syndicated newspaper column and a book. Later in life she became a realtor, property manager and residential building contractor for her company G Davis Homes.

A service will be held at the Flanigan Funeral Home at 11 a.m. on Friday, December 28th, with visitation with the family from 10-11 a.m. A memorial service for friends and family will be held in the Great Smoky Mountains on Saturday, March 2nd to celebrate her life and remember all that she gave us. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in her name to any of the causes that were important to her; CARE poverty-fighting work around the globe, Samaritan's Purse, League of Women Voters, International Justice Mission or the George Family Foundation with its focus on wholeness in mind, body, spirit and community.
