“ We will all miss Uncle Jerry, he had a big heart and was always smiling. We lost contact with Jerry over the years but reconnected with Jerry and his family over the last ten years or so. He was the last of a great bunch of brothers and will truly be missed. Love you Uncle Jerry.....My deepest condolences to you Franklin

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Your tears are seen from God above and he makes a promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon death will be no more. He will call out to your precious one and you will never have to fear saying goodbye ever again. That is a promise from God! (John 5:28,29; Job14:14,15; Job 33:25) Jw.org

“ A popular Epitaph of 1700's and 1800's says, "Death thou has conquered me, I by thy dart am slain. But Christ has conquered thee, and I shall rise again." As Gerald has learned from his death the beauty of Heaven and the reward of a life well-lived for Christ, we now can learn from his death of lessons he has left, memories he has woven into our lives, and a reflection of the hope in Jesus that we shall see him again. May the sweet Comforter left to us by Christ assuage our grief and overcome it with His hope and our great memories. Death thou has conquered me, I by thy dart am slain. But Christ has conquered thee, And I shall rise again." As Gerald has learned from his death the beauty of Heaven and the reward of a life well-lived for Christ, we now can learn from his death of lessons he has left, memories he has woven into our lives, and a reflection of the hope in Jesus that we shall see him again. “ Franklin,

We are deeply saddened at the passing of your dear Father. Being retired it is sometimes hard to remember what day of the week it is. We always knew it was Wednesday when Gerald came to help you with the upkeep of your home. We always enjoyed visiting with him on those days. Our Wednesday guy will be missed, as he already is.
