“ *Beloved Mama,
The moment that you died my heart was torn in two, one side filled with heartache, the other died with you.
I often lie awake at night when the world is fast asleep and take a walk down memory lane with tears upon my cheeks.
Remembering you is easy, I do it everyday, but missing you is heartache that never goes away.
I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain. Until the joyous day arrives, that we will meet again.*

*Today marks one year of my life without you.
I love and miss you so much.
Your daughter, Phyllis*

“ *Mom, it has been six months to the day that you went away.
As I loved you, so I miss you, in my memory you are near.
Loved, remembered, longed for always, treasured with a love sincere.
You are where I cannot see you, and your voice I cannot hear, yet I know you walk beside me, never absent, always near.
I love you so much.

“ Dearest Mom,
I wish Heaven had a phone so I could hear your voice again. I thought of you today, but that is nothing new. I thought about you yesterday, and the days before too. I think of you in silence, I often speak your name. All I have are memories and a photo in a frame. Your memory is a keepsake, from which I'll never part. God has you in his arms and I have you in my heart.

I miss and love you so much.
Your daughter, Phyllis

“ So sorry that many of you posted personal messages here but they were not posted. It would've been nice to read each one but your cards, phone calls and hugs gave us great comfort during our time of loss.

Thank you so much
Linda

“ You all are in my prayers. Your Mom was always such a sweet and beautiful lady. I have many fond memories of her and all of you from my childhood. We all had a lot of good times together. We are all blessed to have known your Mom, and we are still being blessed to have the privilege to stay in contact with each other over the years.
Love you all,
