“*“And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing.” (1 Corinthians 15:26) I am very sorry for your loss. I pray that you find comfort in knowing that God promises that he will soon wipe away and reverse the effects of this enemy that causes so much pain. Your precious husband, brother, father and friend will be brought back to you and you will never have to experience the pain of losing him ever again. This is a promise from God! “ We first met Gerrell at Stonewall's Saloon and Dance Hall in Tucker, Ga where he and we and many other friends plied the fine art of country line dancing in the 90's and beyond. What we lacked in dancing skill was made up for by the gusto we brought to the dance floor. Gerrell's many friends from that arena, and others as well, will long remember his enthusiasm and love for life and the fun we shared.

Gerrell was also a charter member of the O.F. (Old Folks, or something like that) Poker Club, Dacula branch and rarely missed a game whether feeling well or not. An astute player, he made the other members pay if they made the mistake of not taking his poker plays seriously. The Saints in Heaven should beware if they play poker with Gerrell lest they suffer the same fate as his fellow poker club members in this earthly realm.

So we say "Godspeed, Gerrell"; we look forward to the grand reunion we'll have in Heaven!

Betty and I send our heartfelt condolences to his family and to all his many friends who loved him as did we.
