“ Gigi was a dear friend of mine in high school and we worked together at Little Caesars Pizza. We sat next to each other in choir and shared so many laughs! At Little Caesars, we loved to sing along with the radio through our whole shift. Her laughter and sense of humor made our hours at Little Caesars more fun than work. To this day, my husband and I still fondly remember Gigi when certain 80's songs come on the radio.

May the peace of the Lord be with your family in the coming days. May you feel the love and comfort surrounding you from the many friends and family who are thinking and praying for you. Our hearts and our prayers are with you.

“ Gigi was a bright star and always could be counted on to join in any adventure that her big sister Sue and I cooked up. Of course Gigi was a master at planning her own adventures too. The world is a bit darker without her spirit but she will always be in the heart of anyone who knew her.

*My thoughts and prayers are with y'all in this most difficult time.

“ True friends are jewels and Gigi was a very rare jewel. She was a true friend to me. I remember laughing so hard with her, she had a beautiful smile. I remember having sleep overs at her house and her mom made soft boiled eggs and served them on beautiful egg stands. I also remember when her brother passed away from MS and how that rocked her world. May she find happiness reuniting with him. Yesterday a bird visited me while I was at my sons basketball practice, it cooed and made eye contact with me. I called her Gigi and she lingered longer before flying on her way. Wa are all so blessed to have known Gigi and blessed to have her now as an angel in our lives. My love and prayers to her family now and always. Aloha Gigi, a hui ho. Love, Mary o
