“ She was my Baby Sister and was always there to help me in my darkest times,her and my Brother in law Royce (who was more to me) would welcome me to stay in their home when I had no where else to go,she always knew how to make me feel so much better after coming off the road being gone weeks at a time! She and Royce had a heart of Gold! They changed my life just being around them and their Christian Ways! They Both helped me to Grow closer to God! They were there in Charlotte NC when I had a heart attack,to pick me up and take me back to their home. She was always there to help me at the VA hospital when I was having kidney stones surgery! Always told me and our Dad that we always had a Home! My Dad had two sons,Royce was the other,that's how much my dad loved him 🥺 I could tell many more memories of my Baby Sister,she wasn't perfect but none of us are, I can tell you that she loved all of her cousins,aunts,uncles,friends and family,grandkids and just about everyone she met! I will miss you so much Baby Sister (always checking on me) Now you can celebrate in Heaven with all the ones we have lost over the years and with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ 🙏 Love 💖 you always until we meet Again 🕊
